Because of the unique nature of this space, we recommend visiting Humber Street Gallery and viewing Space 2 in order to better understand the layout and potential for your project, event or workshop.

Please enquire about rates for hires longer than a single day. Discounts are available for cultural partners across the region — please enquire for more details.

What we offer

Food

We don't provide in-house catering, but our location puts you right at the heart of Hull's best food scene. From local restaurants to artisan producers, we can connect you with trusted suppliers who deliver everything from working lunches to networking canapés. Or, if you prefer, you are welcome to arrange your own catering to suit the tone and style of your day.

Our Team

Our experienced team will support you at every stage, from planning through to delivery. We will make sure everything runs smoothly, leaving you free to focus on your guests and your special day.

Photographers

We collaborate with skilled local photographers who know the gallery well and understand how to capture its character. We can recommend professionals whose style will align perfectly with your celebrations.
